January ALIVE Academy-Appreciating Volunteer Management as a Step on Your Career Ladder

02:00 PM - 03:30 PM EST

Appreciating Volunteer Management as a Step on Your Career Ladder

Session Description: You know the term 'career ladder' but does your career appear to be more of a step ladder or a large telescoping ladder? Too often our organization's leadership views volunteer management as a folding step stool with limited height versus that telescoping ladder that can take us wherever we want to reach. In this session, we will discuss how those in volunteer management can better advocate and educate the leadership of our organizations to recognize the skills we use every day as viable steps on our personal career ladder.

Register below via the Zoom webinar link.

About our Presenter:

For 30+ years, Mary Beth Harrington has been one of the nonprofit sectors most passionate supporters. Her career path is unique, rather than focusing on a particular sector she has worked with a variety of nonprofits from Aids organizations to zoos.

Harrington's experience supports her ability to speak on almost any nonprofit topic. A prolific presenter Harrington has presented for International Association of Volunteer Administrators, Meals on Wheels of America, Habitat for Humanity International, US Tennis Association and countless state, local and individual groups. Her resume includes serving as Director of Curriculum & Development at San Antonio Area Foundation, Director of Agency Relations at Volunteer Center of North Texas, and Director of Community Outreach at Texas Association of Nonprofit Organizations (TANO).

Harrington currently travels the country speaking at conferences and to individual organizations articulating issues facing our nonprofit community; urging nonprofits to welcome new leadership, collaborate to be more effective, develop their boards to be more sustainable and recognize the value of their volunteer program.

Prior to her experience in nonprofits, Harrington spent ten years in the private sector in the field of public relations and advertising promoting everything from a building implosion to psychiatric hospitals and cinnamon rolls!

A native of Texas, Harrington recently moved to the Pacific Northwest where she shares her home with her husband Rick, four cats and her beloved dogs Rugby Roo and Truly Scrumptious (photos available upon request).

February ALIVE Academy: Sticky Situations: Marketing and Media Magic for Volunteer Engag

02:00 PM - 03:15 PM EST

Sticky Situations: Marketing and Media Magic for Volunteer Engagement - Presented by Dana Litwin, CVA

"Sticky" is a marketing term to describe a message that is understandable, memorable, and effective in changing thought or behavior, and keeps people highly engaged. Learn the same media and marketing techniques used by the top global corporations to deepen engagement in your community and recruit volunteer talent, even with little or no budget. By the end of this session, participants will have the knowledge and resources to make their engagement and recruitment messaging more sticky.

About our Presenter:

Dana Litwin, CVA, is a globally recognized strategic advisor, keynote speaker, and thought leader in volunteerism-tech-trends and civic service. Since 2002 she has guided organizations in California's Silicon Valley and nationwide to produce breakthrough volunteer and community engagement programs. Dana is the creator of the YouTube series "Priceless Advice for Leaders of Volunteers", served as President of the Association of Leaders in Volunteer Engagement (ALIVE), and is a founder and facilitator of the multi-sector National Alliance for Volunteer Engagement.

Book Club COP - The Power of Moments

01:00 PM - 02:00 PM EST

2022 ALIVE Book Club COP - The discussion begins May 9, 2022 and runs for seven weeks. The discussion will be facilitated by Darlene Laird, CVA, ALIVE Board Member and Skilled Volunteer Strategy and Engagement Manager for Habitat for Humanity International.

The Power of Moments: Why Certain Experiences Have Extraordinary Impact by Chip Heath & Dan Heath is a book discussion COP and is open to all ALIVE members who value the opportunity to continuously learn and develop their knowledge around volunteer management topics.

The book “explores why certain brief experiences can jolt us and elevate us and change us – and how we can learn to create such extraordinary moments in our life and work.” We will reflect upon ways we can use the use the elements of defining moments to create meaningful volunteer experiences and with an eye toward our rapidly changing and more tech-dependent world.

Participation in the book club offers members the following opportunities:

Learn new concepts from people outside of their organization and think about how to apply them in their volunteer management work.

Learn from within as they meet and connect with other colleagues and share their perspective on a diverse set of topics .

Build camaraderie and teamwork among other ALIVE members.

Create shared language that make the application of the ideas easier in our work.

It is recommended that participants read the book in its entirety before the first meeting and revisit chapters to take part in the bi-weekly discussion. Each participant will be responsible for purchasing the book on their own. This discussion group is designed for those who can attend all sessions, not on a drop in basis.

Book Club COP - The Power of Moments

01:00 PM - 02:00 PM EST

2022 ALIVE Book Club COP - The discussion begins May 9, 2022 and runs for seven weeks. The discussion will be facilitated by Darlene Laird, CVA, ALIVE Board Member and Skilled Volunteer Strategy and Engagement Manager for Habitat for Humanity International.

The Power of Moments: Why Certain Experiences Have Extraordinary Impact by Chip Heath & Dan Heath is a book discussion COP and is open to all ALIVE members who value the opportunity to continuously learn and develop their knowledge around volunteer management topics.

The book “explores why certain brief experiences can jolt us and elevate us and change us – and how we can learn to create such extraordinary moments in our life and work.” We will reflect upon ways we can use the use the elements of defining moments to create meaningful volunteer experiences and with an eye toward our rapidly changing and more tech-dependent world.

Participation in the book club offers members the following opportunities:

Learn new concepts from people outside of their organization and think about how to apply them in their volunteer management work.

Learn from within as they meet and connect with other colleagues and share their perspective on a diverse set of topics .

Build camaraderie and teamwork among other ALIVE members.

Create shared language that make the application of the ideas easier in our work.

Rural Programs COP (managing programs in Rural or Frontier Communities)

02:00 PM - 03:00 PM EST

Rural Community of Practice

Volunteer Engagement Professionals in small towns face unique challenges and opportunities that aren't always addressed by advice intended for city-based audiences. There are also fewer opportunities to connect with others doing similar work across the country. That's what led to the creation of ALIVE's Community of Practice (CoP) for volunteer engagement professionals in rural communities.
